

Training and Facilitation Excellence: The Next Generation

November 20 & 21, 2019

OTEC's 2-day Training and Facilitation Excellence Program equips participants with a solid understanding of adult learning fundamentals and teaches them how to develop a learner-centric environment. Designed for organizations wanting to develop the competencies of their in-house workplace trainers or facilitators and/or for individuals who wish to develop the skills to be a professional facilitator, this program provides the skills, tools and confidence to successfully facilitate and train in any environment.

Day 1:

- Discover the different learning styles and recognized adult learning principles and theories
- Examine the experiential learning cycle & how it relates to learning styles
- Explore training styles and strategies
- Acquire training and facilitation tips
- Work through key facilitation challenges

Day 2:

- Learn how to effectively deliver programs to a variety of audiences
- Uncover techniques to handle difficult participants
- Gain experience delivering a 10-minute practicum module for classroom delivery OR use content customized for an on-the-job workplace in a training simulation
